

Customer Merge Log

This report shows an audit trail of customers that were merged together and who the employee was that conducted the merge. Both the merged customer primary name and address, and the name and customer number of the record the information was merged into will be displayed on the report.

Note: VinNOW will automatically make a note in the remaining customer file that there was information that was merged into it.